

A PROCLAMATION OF THE MILLCREEK COUNCIL RECOGNIZING MILLCREEK'S FIRST DECADE AS A CITY

WHEREAS, Millcreek was inhabited for centuries by Ute, Goshute, and Northern Shoshone indigenous peoples, became home to Mormon pioneers beginning in 1848 who constructed lumber and grist mills to harness the energy of Mill Creek, and grew to include diverse peoples from all around the world, including the largest early settlement of African-American pioneers in Utah; and

WHEREAS, this area was governed as unincorporated Salt Lake County from 1850-2016, and supported by the Millcreek Community Council, East Mill Creek Community Council, Canyon Rim Citizens Association, and Mt. Olympus Community Council; and

WHEREAS, on November 3, 2015, 66% of area residents voted to incorporate as a city; and

WHEREAS, on December 28, 2016, at 9:30 AM, first Mayor Jeff Silvestrini had the Articles of Incorporation certified by Utah Lt. Governor Spencer Cox's office to officially create Millcreek, a Utah Municipal Corporation; and

WHEREAS, the newly incorporated city has grown and prospered in its first decade, master-planned and built a city center; improved roads; launched a Promise Program; and added parks, trails, and open space, including Millcreek Common; and

WHEREAS, the City Council desires to celebrate the achievements of the City's first decade.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED that the Council, on behalf of the people of Millcreek, officially recognizes the City's first ten years and proclaims the year 2026 to be a celebratory year marking the Millcreek Decennial. May this milestone year be a special time to strengthen the City we love, improve what we can, and imagine what comes next.

ADOPTED on this the 12th day of January, 2026.
