We Need You!

MILLCREEK. If you're a long-time subscriber to this newsletter, you may think news about the development of Millcreek's new General Plan is old hat and ignorable. Please don't. We are in a critical phase, and we really want your help to move forward.

Since the beginning of last summer, we've been collecting and synthesizing your opinions and ideas on what you like about Millcreek and what you'd like to see changed. We now need your input on the best ways to implement what we've been hearing.

For example, two themes have emerged from your comments about neighborhoods and housing. Millcreek residents want to preserve the current housing stock, but also report concerns that Millcreek is going to grow by the thousands in the future yet buildable land is scarce. How do we address both interests?

We've got some BIG IDEAS, but we want to hear from you. Please come to a workshop this week, which we will repeat three times. The first is tomorrow morning. Join us for breakfast, see what we've been doing, and let's brainstorm. Or come later in the week on Thursday or Friday if you can't make Saturday's workshop. See the times and places below.

In addition to providing information on the General Plan, we'll have educational materials available, which will explain the trade-offs and potential benefits that could result from the choices being considered. Click here to get a start on some of the workshop materials.

Saturday, March 17th - BIG IDEAS BREAKFAST
 10 AM to 11:30 AM
 Bud Bailey Apartments, 3970 South Main, Bldg C

Thursday, March 22nd - BIG IDEAS BRAINSTORM
 6 PM to 7:30 PM
 City Hall, 3330 South 1300 East

Friday, March 23rd - BIG IDEAS ICE CREAM SOCIAL
 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM
 Millcreek Community Center, 2266 East Evergreen Ave.

- Are there areas where transportation improvements are needed?
- Should Millcreek allow tiny homes and/or accessory dwelling units (ADUs)?
- What should a future Town Center look like?
- Where do we encourage redevelopment and investment for our community's future?

These are just a few of the questions that we need feedback on!

Skyline Teacher Honored as Outstanding Educator

MILLCREEK. Skyline language arts teacher Jill Thackeray was surprised earlier this week by the presentation of a 2018 Granite Education Foundation Excel Outstanding Educator Award. Superintendent Martin Bates and Granite Foundation members surprised Ms. Thackeray with cameras, balloons, and a great big sign.

The Granite Education Foundation explains that the award is given for an educator's "personal commitment and contribution" to the 67,000-strong Granite School District student body.

Each year, the award is "bestowed upon nine teachers and one administrator who have been nominated by school administrators, colleagues or students."

Congratulations to a long-time Skyline educator and very deserving member of our community! Thanks, Ms. Thackeray, for your many years of excellent teaching of our high school kids!

Millcreek Resident Brenna Huckaby Earns Double Gold

NORTH KOREA. Millcreek resident Brenna Huckaby made national news this week, winning two Paralympics Gold medals in PyeongChang. She took first place in the debut of the snowboard cross event. Click here for NBC's video of the race. She then won first place in the inaugural banked-slalom snowboarding event. Here's that race.

Ms. Huckaby learned to snowboard at the National Ability Center after she lost her right leg above the knee to osteosarcoma. She later moved to Utah from Louisiana to pursue her new sport.

Here are just a few stories heralding her achievements this past week:

After winning her first race in PyeongChang, Ms. Huckaby told Team USA, "I can't put it into words. I felt so much love after I crossed the finish line and heard the cheering from the crowd. I feel relieved because I've worked so hard for this for so long and it paid off. It just feels really good." Congrats, Brenna, from the City of Millcreek. You go, girl!
