Millcreek's own, Sam Granato will be sorely missed

Open letter to Millcreek:

Millcreek mourns the loss of our long-time resident, County Councilman, and dear friend, Sam Granato.

Sam passed away earlier this week, after a long struggle with cancer – although one would not have known it from the effort he made to fulfill his responsibilities with vigor and a with a great sense of humor to the end.

Sam was a mentor to me. He set a great example of integrity and fidelity to his core values of family and loyalty.

As the representative of "the Great District 4" on the County Council, Sam was an advocate on the Council for Millcreek. At the outset of our new city, he helped us considerably by fighting for our issues and helping us to obtain start-up funding. Our city got off to a good start in large part because of Sam's involvement and help.

Many condolences to his wife, Ann, and their family.

Church, 2375 E 3300 S

We will miss you tremendously, Sam. Peace.

REMINDER OF PLANNING MEETING

City Council
Mon., 5/14/18
Time and agenda to be announced

Just a quick reminder of the meeting Monday, April 30, 5:30 to 7:00 pm, at City Hall, with stakeholders to plan how to manage development pressure in the area around Highland Drive and the Brickyard ("the Wedge"). Click here for more information.

SCOTT AVENUE PARK TREE-I-FIED

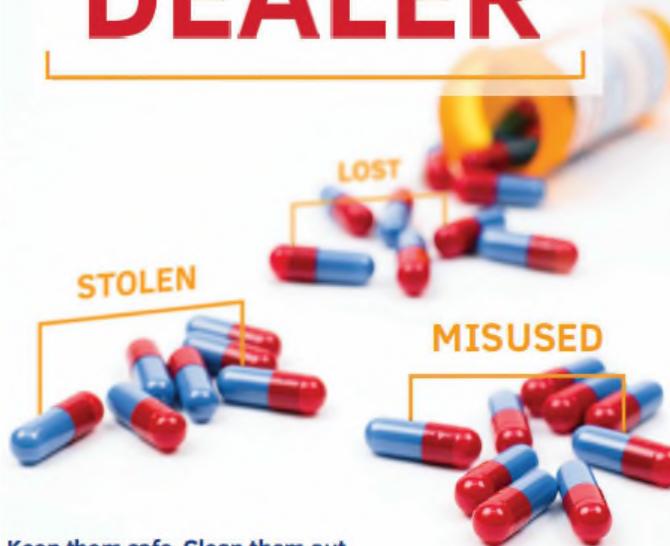

MILLCREEK. This week, a large group of volunteers (that included Councilman Dwight Marchant) planted 30 new trees in the Scott Avenue Park.

TreeUtah organized the effort. It was good timing, as Salt Lake County's Flood Control was required to remove many trees from the levee, in another part of the park.

We owe TreeUtah and the volunteers many thanks. Their efforts will leave a wonderful legacy to future generations who will come to enjoy the park.
