Work Session 5 pm
 Council Meeting 7 pm

Hospital and honor our Millcreek UPD Precinct K-9 Officers.

Senator Iwamoto, shocked by the murder of two Millcreek Precinct K-9 Officers, felt it important to take steps at the state legislature to increase the penalty for killing a police service animal to a third-degree felony. The legislation was supported by Mayor Silvestrini who testified in favor during the hearings. This new law was passed during the 2016 legislative session, and in August, a third-degree felony count for killing a police service animal was one of several counts that sent the man who murdered Dingo to prison for 11 years.

The murders of Dingo and Aldo drove home the knowledge of the dangerous work that the UPD K-9 Officers perform and how they help save officer's lives.

K-9 Officer Aldo was killed in 2016 while protecting his handler and detectives during a gunfight that broke out while detectives were attempting to issue an arrest warrant. K-9 Officer Dingo was fatally wounded during a fugitive chase in 2017 during an operation to apprehend a fugitive known to be armed and dangerous.

Both Dingo and Aldo gave their lives protecting UPD officers and in both cases are credited with saving lives.

This year for the Festival of Trees, Senator Iwamoto spent her time, energy and money to create a tree for the Festival dedicated to K-9 Officers who have been killed in the line of duty and named the tree after Dingo and Aldo. She was joined in her efforts by several individuals:

- * Assistant Chief Chad Reyes who was Dingo's handler and provided his time and supplies
- * Karen Koons, a Millcreek resident who decorates trees as part of her profession donated her expertise by gathering supplies and decorating the tree
- * Karen Hale, former State Senator, who donated the two large stuffed dogs
- * Brandy Farmer, a member of the UPD Citizens Advisory Board, who spent time and energy assisting with tree decoration
- * The Herriman UPD Precinct who donated a Certificate for a "Day With A Canine"

The Millcreek Team was pleasantly surprised when the winning bid on this wonderful tribute tree was by Mayor Silvestrini and his wife, who have donated the tree to Millcreek where it will stand in the lobby of City Hall. All proceeds from the Festival of Trees go to Primary Children's Hospital.

We invite everyone to stop by and enjoy the beautiful tree next week when it will grace City Hall. Drop in to take a look and say hello to the city staff who stand ready to assist residents with questions or concerns.

POEM WRITTEN BY A 17-YEAR OLD UPON HEARING OF DINGO'S DEATH

*You brought me home, one winter's day
 With you for years, I surely would stay*

*I met your pack, your children and wife
 Much did I love them, and my new-found life*

*I slept on your couch, and with you in bed
 You looked at me lovingly, while petting my head*

*We trained together for months, our bonding grew
 Each other's partner, true buddies in blue*

*We did school demos, I never did wrong
 Over the years, my love for you grew strong*

*How I loved to work, to stand up and bark
 In the back of our truck, from light until dark*

*We went call to call, having fun all the way
 Until that call came, that one fateful day*

*A man with a gun, the dispatcher did say
 I jumped from our car, when it was pointed your way*

*The bullet struck hard, steady and true
 The bullet struck me, instead of striking you*

When you go home tonight, tell your children I did good Strong, tall and proud, against that evil man I stood

*I'm dead and gone now, this much is true
 But I've done my job well, of protecting you*

This tree dedicated to Dingo, Aldo, Koda, Max, who were killed feloniously and sacrificed their own life to save their human partners; and to all the other police service dogs who paid the ultimate price, serving and protecting their communities.
