A MESSAGE FROM the Unified Fire Authority (UFA) about the Fourth of July weekend:

Weather for the rest of the week is predicted to be hot, dry and windy. Temperatures will be in the 90s, with winds between 20 to 30 mph and humidity as low as 10 to 15 percent. These conditions lead to a high risk of accidental fire starts from the usage of fireworks.

UFA urges the public to take every precaution when using fireworks during such conditions or to find legal opportunities to use them when these weather conditions do not exist.

Before lighting fireworks, UFA asks the public to review the interactive restrictions map found on unifiedfire.org and monitor the weather conditions to ensure they are doing so in an appropriate and legal area.

UFA also strongly encourages following the recommended safety tips:

- Refrain from using any aerials if you are within 200 feet of an open area or grassy, brushy field
- Read the cautionary labels before igniting
- A responsible adult should supervise all firework activities
- Never use fireworks while impaired by drugs or alcohol
- Anyone using fireworks or standing nearby should wear eye protection
- Always have a bucket of water AND a charged water hose nearby
- Appropriately secure any aerial fireworks before lighting
- Never relight a dud firework. Wait 20 minutes and then soak it in the bucket of water
- Dispose of spent fireworks by wetting them down or placing in the bucket of water and then throwing them away in a metal trash can the next day

CELEBRATING 244 YEARS OF INDEPENDENCE!!

- BE COUNTED -

A MESSAGE FROM THE US CENSUS BUREAU

As the nation celebrates this Independence Day, it's a good time to reflect on how our Founding Fathers enshrined in our Constitution the importance of statistics as a vital tool for measuring people, places, and economy. Every 10 years, the United States counts its population. It's a requirement, written into the Constitution. And the first count dates back to the first years of our first president, when U.S. Marshals conducted the census on horseback.

The count has been carried on once a decade since then, as the country has continued to grow, as innovators have found new ways to ensure that everyone is counted. This year, make sure you make history by participating in the 2020 count. Then test your history knowledge with this census quiz.

Millcreek! Let's Light Up the Night for the span of 20 days at 10pm, for 10 minutes, from July 4th to 24th. Light is a symbol of goodness, clarity and insight. Together we can symbolically show support and unity during this time of uncertainty.

Use flashlights, house lights, candles, phones or perhaps get creative with holiday lights to Light Up the Night in Millcreek. Participate one night, or nightly for the span of 20-nights. Do it inside or outside, you decide.

Social distancing doesn't mean we can't come together as a community. Share your Millcreek light-up-the-night moments online. Whether your moments show solidarity, gratitude or a celebration, we can still connect as a community, even if we are apart. Post your moments online and tag them #MillcreekShines. Meetings with the Mayor Fridays from 2-4pm have been set aside for citizens to meet with Mayor Silvestrini. Please call 801-214-2700 to schedule a slot.

Mayor Silvestrini on the right, with (left to right) Sandy Mayor Kurt Bradburn, Draper Mayor Troy Walker, Cottonwood Heights Mayor Mike Peterson, Salt Lake County Mayor Jenny Wilson, and Holladay Mayor Rob Dahle, joined forces earlier this week at the Rio Tinto Stadium to promote #MaskUpUtah. Why does our Mayor mask up? "I do it for my family," he wrote on his mask. ("Thank you!," says the FLOM.)
