2000 East Project Joins List of Roadway Improvements

MILLCREEK. The Millcreek Public Works Department has been working on roadway improvements across the City. Projects are completed on several major collector and arterial roads, e.g., 3900 S from 2700 E to I-215, and Highland Drive and 1300 E from City border to border. Others, like 900 E between 3900 and 4500 S, will begin later this year.

As projects on these major roads near completion, we can begin working on the minor collector roads throughout the City.

Among the minor collectors that will be improved next is 2000 East. We had a kickoff meeting earlier this week for the project, which will address safety and storm water concerns on 2000 East from Siggard Avenue to Millcreek's northern boundary with Salt Lake City. A state appropriation of approximately $7 million secured through the City's lobbying efforts will allow for this major road project to be completed with minimal cost to City residents.

Last August a major rainstorm caused flooding in the vicinity of 3300 South and 2000 East due to the lack of curb, gutter and appropriate storm drains to direct the water along 2000 East.

Improvements to 2000 East have been on the Canyon Rim Citizens Association's list of requested capital improvement projects for a few years. The project will include curb, gutter and sidewalk, new pavement surface and piping of the exposed ditches resulting in a much safer and more attractive street that will last for years. We are happy that we will be able to begin this project to connect with the improvements Salt Lake City recently made along the north end of 2000 East.

Engineering and right of way work is underway. State of the art drone surveying will be utilized to provide our engineers with the most accurate information.

The storm drain work is the initial construction work to be completed -- it must be done between October 15 and March 15 when the ditches are not in use. Other repairs will follow. We are anticipating completion of the entire project by the end of 2023.

Scouting for Food Kicks Off Event at Mill Creek Elementary

MILLCREEK. Mayor Silvestrini joined Allen Endicott, Scout Executive of the BSA Crossroads of the West Council, Eagle Scout Anton Goodick, and a host of businesses on Thursday at Mill Creek Elementary School to kick off the 36th annual statewide Scouting for Food Drive.

"Today, we link arms with community leaders throughout the state, dedicating our time and resources to fill Utah's pantries," said Endicott. "We're proud to kick off our 36th Annual Scouting for Food Drive and partner with Arctic Circle, Bank of Utah, Red Hanger, Young Automotive, and Smith's Food and Drug stores in our goal to distribute and collect more than 100,000 Scouting for Food bags in communities throughout Utah."

"The COVID-19 pandemic has brought many hardships upon families in our community and across the state," said Mayor Silvestrini. "I would like to encourage individuals, community groups and businesses in Millcreek and across the state to join us in collecting food within our neighborhoods, offices and churches -- and bringing their donations to the Bank of Utah, Arctic Circle, Smiths, and any Red Hanger to benefit local food banks and pantries like this one."

The Scouting for Food Drive will take place next Saturday, February 12th.

November - Ark Insurance

Rebecca Yates started Ark Insurance in 2010 based on her desire to focus not solely on the dollar, but to put individuals and clients first. It is this founding principle that has helped make Ark Insurance Solutions LLC the most trusted resource for affordable health insurance in the greater Salt Lake City, Utah area. We participate with initiatives that will make our clients' lives better, previously including the Utah Independent Business Coalition and the Alumni Board at Westminster College.

Currently we are advocating for our community through the Utah All Copays Count Coalition and are actively working to implement legislation that will ensure our members receive the care they need. Rebecca also participates on the CMS Broker Advisory group where she meets with CMS monthly, and participates in think tanks and committees to improve health insurance on a federal level as well.

December - Paletti

Established in 2004, Paletti continues to present the very best of independent clothing and accessory designers from Europe, Asia, and the USA.

Our goal is to dress the well-traveled woman who seeks quality in fabric and simplicity in design to create an independent style that will withstand time and trends. Whether you are looking for a new wardrobe or a few key pieces we look forward to giving each customer a unique and personalized shopping experience. Clothing is a way to say who you are without having to speak. It has the ability to level a playing field and give you instant credibility, as well as self-confidence; clothing can open doors to enhance your career.

Paletti is dedicated to giving back to those that need our help. We have held fundraisers for female artists who have been hurt financially during covid when they could not show or sell their work. We help the YWCA with Candy Cane Lane each year, giving Christmas to the children of women that have been taken out of abusive situations. We donate clothes to women trying to get back into the workforce, giving them the ability to look professional when interviewing and starting new jobs. We created the Highland Drive Business Alliance to recognize and give a voice to businesses along Highland Drive and the wonderful local small businesses that call this street home.
