MILLCREEK. The City Council redistricting process was finalized when a new map was adopted at the council meeting held on this past Monday, May 9th.

The adopted map, seen above in its proposed form, adjusts the City's four council district boundaries to maintain substantially equal population. It meets the state mandate that the City adopt new districts based on population changes from the 2020 census data within six months after the State Legislature completes its decennial redistricting process.

See Agendas below

An initial set of maps was prepared by city staff to propose various options that followed the guidelines of the Independent Redistricting Commission.

The initial maps were presented to the City Council in February and at each of the four Millcreek Community Council meetings held in March and April. Public input was solicited through this newsletter, social media, and a special edition of the City's printed newsletter (that is delivered by the postal service to all Millcreek households). A final public hearing was held to receive public comment on the proposed maps at the April 11th city council meeting.

As comments from residents and community councils were reviewed, two additional proposals were developed and one of those (shown above) was adopted on May 9th.

As a result of this process, some residents will have their city council representative changed. This was necessary and unavoidable due to the fact that the census showed that the population in the western portion of the City had increased and therefore those districts had to be geographically constricted to even out the voting population.

A major change in the eastern part of the City moves the Mt. Olympus Community Council area into one district rather than it being split between districts 3 and 4. This request came from the Mt. Olympus Community Council, and was also heard through many comments from residents.

During the upcoming election cycle in 2023, most voters will continue to vote in their existing districts. Those who are impacted by the boundary changes will be voting in the new districts.

Residents are encouraged to continue to contact their current city council representatives and/or their new representative with any questions or concerns. An important and foundational aspect of the Millcreek City Council has always been that all members concern themselves with all residents of the City. The focus of any individual councilmember has never been specifically on only the residents living in their district.

We appreciate everyone who took the time to send in comments and suggestions. Your input helped us develop and adopt a map that will serve the City well for the next ten years.

Millcreek Students' Stars Shine Brightly

MILLCREEK. On Monday, May 9, Mayor Silvestrini and the Millcreek City Council honored the Top 50 young scholars in the City with the first annual “Mayor’s Star of Excellence Award.” This year’s honorees are juniors with a cumulative grade point average of 3.962 or higher, attending Skyline, Olympus, or Cottonwood High. They will be able to include the prestigious recognition on their college and scholarship applications made during their senior year.

“We are very proud of these high achievers,” said the Mayor. “The entire community acknowledges their outstanding scholarship, and they all have very bright futures ahead,” he said.

“It is really motivating for young people to know that they are being recognized for their hard work,” said award recipient Grey Jensen, Skyline High School. “This award will give students something to strive for.”

“I’m so glad to be a part of a wonderful city that recognizes the youth in our city,” said Preston Labrum, award winner from Olympus High.

“As a recipient of this award, it reinforces the hard work I have put into my studies and motivates me to continue to show dedication,” added Esther Wilson, Skyline.

I-215 CONSTRUCTION ALERT New Traffic Patterns and Ramp Closures

I-215 IN MILLCREEK. The southbound I-215 travel lanes between 3300 South and 4500 South in Millcreek will shift onto new concrete in the median to give the Utah Department of Transportation (UDOT) I-80 & I-215 Renewed project team space to complete the next phase of work in this section while also keeping traffic moving. Traffic will be in a lane split pattern, as shown in the video above.

Drivers will see this new traffic pattern as early as Sunday morning, May 15, and it will be in place through fall 2022.

To prepare for the lane shift, the I-215 on-ramp from 3900 South will be closed from Friday, May 13, at 9pm through Monday, May 15, at 5am. Those needing to exit southbound I-215 at 4500 South should stay in the right two lanes.

Through traffic can use all travel lanes.

Additionally, the southbound I-215 off-ramp to 3900 South will be closed from Sunday, May 15, through June 2022 to allow crews to fully reconstruct the ramp.

Please use caution when driving in construction zones.

For more information about this new traffic pattern, visit udot.utah.gov/saltlakeeast or reach out to the project team at saltlakeeast@utah.gov or 844-909-3278.
