

Catch Some Big Air!

The Skate Loop Legends will perform along with luchadores, the Flying Ace All-Stars trampoline show, and other thrilling performances. For the finale, we'll light up the sky with a 150-drone light show.

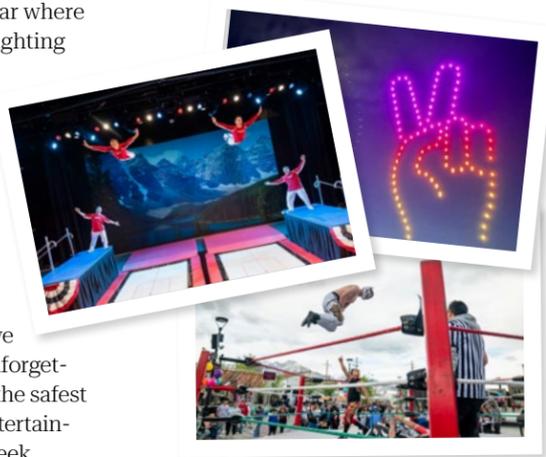

Luchadores (Mexican wrestlers) will set up the ring in the middle of the Common for an incredible sports spectacular where stories of tecnicos (good guys) fighting against rudos (bad characters) come to life.

With Olympic gold-medal athleticism, the Flying Aces will take to the stage next. You'll be stunned by these athletes from all different backgrounds, —Olympians and World Champions— from all over the country.

Finally, 150 drones will rise above Millcreek Common to create an unforgettable sky show. Drones are one of the safest and most eco-friendly forms of entertainment. Patriotic imagery and Millcreek themes will be intertwined into the performance and choreographed to music. Perhaps Milo the Moose will even make an appearance in the sky!

We hope to see you and your neighbors at this Independence Day Eve Celebration.

Join us Wednesday, July 3rd, as Millcreek Common hosts its 2nd annual Independence Eve Big Air Show from 6:00–10:00 pm. Tickets at MillcreekCommon.org for $3. Limited Seating.

Enjoy high-flying entertainment along with roller skating, climbing, games, special Independence Day-themed concessions, delicious food, and a beer garden.

Here's Millie!

MILLIE MILLCREEK

There's nothing I love more than relaxing in my hammock with a good book and a big glass of lemonade on a warm summer day. I decided to choose a summer reading theme this year; UTAH! I'm trying to read books based in or about our beautiful state, or written by a Utahn. The Utah Division of Arts and Museums has a fun resource to help me in my search called, 'Mapping Literary Utah.' www.mappingliteraryutah.com And wow, do they have a lot of reading suggestions. Lucky for me, and the rest of Millcreek, we have so many great places to find our next read. I usually start at the Millcreek Library because the librarians have such great suggestions for readers of all ages. I recently stumbled upon their, 'Get Outdoors,' book section and found fiction, non-fiction, guides, and even board books for the littles about exploring outside. While you're there, be sure to sign your kids up for the summer reading program! This year's theme is, 'Adventure Begins.' It goes through July 31st and there are a lot of great prizes to encourage reading. Be sure to check out the library's event calendar for free fun in our community.

I also love browsing the new, used, and collectible books at Marissa's Books. I usually stop in when I need a gift for someone and end up staying for much longer than I'd planned. Browsing their unique offerings in their cozy space is a great way to spend some time. I also love it when I come across a free little library around town! What a great way to share. What are your favorite summer books?

XOXOXO, Millie

Millcreek Parks and How We Care for Them

Since its inception in 2017, Millcreek has taken ownership of four parks within its boundaries: Canyon Rim Park, Fortuna Park, Scott Avenue Park, and Sunnyside Park. These four parks, more than just green space, are vital recreational areas that allow Millcreek residents to enjoy the beauty of nature. However, the care and maintenance of these parks are not solely the city's responsibility.

Preserving these natural havens requires the collective effort and attention of all park users, highlighting the importance of community involvement.

Canyon Rim Park, located in northeast Millcreek, is 16 acres and the largest of the four city-owned parks. This spring, the city began construction of 10 pickleball courts, replacing the old, worn-out tennis courts in the northwest corner of the park. Construction will continue through the summer and is anticipated to be completed in early fall. Other improvements were made to the park last year. The city was able to replace the playground equipment on the east side of the park and add a larger area for swings through receiving a grant of approximately $400,000 added to city funds.

Fortuna Park in the Mount Olympus area is the site of the former Fortuna Elementary School. The smallest of the four city parks, Fortuna Park is a needed open area on the east side of Wasatch Boulevard. Last year,

MILLCREEK PROMISES KEPT

Millcreek Recognized

Millcreek wants every resident to have an equal opportunity to be healthy. To achieve this, in 2018 Millcreek established the Millcreek Promise Program to create a safer, healthier community for all. The Promise Program plans events and service projects to increase access to healthy food, de-stigmatize mental health, and improve opportunities for outdoor recreation. Millcreek installed a futsal court in a portion of the city that is home to lower-income, immigrant, and refugee populations. Millcreek also partnered with the IRC New Roots Program to promote local food production and incentivize growing culturally appropriate foods. The city website has a resource page to inform residents of opportunities for healthy eating, active living, and improving mental health. These are just some of the many reasons why Millcreek was designated a Healthy Utah Community in 2021.

2024 REDESIGNATION: To be redesignated in Spring 2024, Millcreek continued to work hard to ensure that every resident has access to healthy food and mental health resources. The city partnered with Waste Less Solutions to launch a garden share program that distributes excess produce from residents' gardens to organizations and food pantries that address hunger in the community. Millcreek also partnered with Housing Connect to host resource fairs that provide refugees and low-income residents with resources for education, health, and safety. This ensures that a strong foundation is in place for improved wellbeing.

Why Your Community Councils Matter

The elections in the Millcreek Community Council areas of Millcreek, East Mill Creek, Canyon Rim and Mt. Olympus will be held on Tuesday, November 5. These councils are important because they provide communities with an identity. The councils can plan and present recommendations on actions to the city as representatives of their area—a link between residents and the city government.

Community councils submit an annual list of their top priorities to the mayor's office. Community councils play an important role in promoting the well-being of their local neighborhoods, developing community spirit and informing the residents about matters of public concern.

The Councils play an important role in reviewing and making recommendations on applications, e.g., development, rezoning, ordinance changes, etc. Millcreek's first "grass roots" review of new ordinances usually takes place at the community council level.

Community councils hold their meetings in public so all residents can attend. Special meetings can also be called in order to assess the views of their community members on major issues. They participate actively in assuring that their representative community views are heard and recognized. They should always act in a non-political and non-sectarian way.

People wanting to share their time and skills are perfect: must be over 18 years old, be a resident where they plan to run, and they must be a registered voter on the County's electoral roll. They can have no legal incapacity and filling out the Declaration of Candidacy form is necessary. The Declaration of Candidacy is collected by the election officer of each community council.

Those wanting to be a candidate in the upcoming election are required to fill out a Declaration of Candidacy Form; contact the Election Officer in your respective area for the form and submit back to that Election Officer along with a maximum 75-word biography and a .jpg photograph by close of business Friday, July 19.

Thanks, Millcreek Youth Council

Twelve members of the Millcreek Youth Council have graduated and are moving on to the next exciting phase of their lives. These incredible people served our community selflessly, and we can't thank them enough for all their hard work.

The Youth Council started off the new term by hosting a Backpack & School Supplies Drive where they gathered and organized donations from the community to deliver 100 fully stocked elementary and secondary backpacks to the Granite Education Foundation. In the fall, the Council picked up several pounds of trash at Canyon Rim Park, all the while providing an example of how we should treat the beautiful world around us. The Council also hosted a successful Halloween Costume Drive and were thrilled to deliver 50 new and gently used Halloween costumes to students at James E. Moss Elementary. In January, Youth Council members participated in Local Officials Day at the Capitol, an annual favorite, where they role-played in a mock committee hearing where they were educated on the importance of planning and zoning ordinances and the difficulties of navigating zoning code. In the spring, the Youth Council made and delivered hundreds of tissue paper flowers to St. Mark's Hospital to be placed in patient rooms who could not have live flowers in their rooms due to risk of respiratory issues or infection.

These are just a few examples of the many ways in which these incredible youth involved themselves in bettering the community throughout the year. The efforts and passion of the Millcreek Youth Council members and their willingness to help others is truly amazing and Millcreek owes each one our thanks. We will miss these graduates and wish them the very best in their future endeavors. They represent the best of the best, and Millcreek's future will be even brighter in their able hands.

Looking Back At Iceberg Drive Inn

The Iceberg Drive Inn, nestled on the corner of 900 East and 3900 South is a Millcreek institution that's been serving happy customers since 1960. Local ice cream machine salesman Hap Vitale had the idea for a building with a distinctive roof that served great milkshakes, burgers and fries. He was able to convince Lamar Sorensen who had experience in the restaurant industry, having managed the Surf and Turf Cafe in Payson, UT and the Polar Queen Drive-In in Henderson, NV, to bring his vision to life.

Widely considered the first drive-in restaurant in Utah, the building was originally designed to be movable, as Sorensen was only renting the corner property where it sat. But the restaurant quickly became an after-school hot-spot, serving and employing generations of students from nearby Granite and Skyline high schools.

Lamar Sorensen, with a keen eye for innovation, insisted on spelling "Drive Inn" with two 'n's, an endearing touch he felt would beckon patrons to a cozy "inn" rather than a mere "drive in." Lamar's dedication to quality and customer satisfaction made Iceberg a local staple and his stewardship lasted an impressive 36 years until 1996 when he passed the torch to new ownership.

Upon acquiring the Iceberg Drive Inn, the new proprietors contemplated demolishing the original structure. However, upon witnessing the deep-rooted affection of the clientele and recognizing the historical significance, they opted to preserve its legacy. Under familial management, the drive-in continues to thrive, maintaining its tradition of warmth and excellent service. Spurred by its local success, Iceberg Drive Inn expanded its reach, with the first franchised unit debuting in 2001, paving the way for 17 locations across Utah, Arizona, and California.

MILLCREEK OFFICER OF THE MONTH

DETECTIVE JACOB WERNER

Detective Jacob Werner is assigned to the Community Crimes Suppression Unit (CCSU). During proactive patrol Det. Werner noticed a suspicious vehicle committing several moving violations. A traffic stop was conducted. Detective Werner's investigation led to the arrest of the driver who was on felony probation as well as probable cause to search the vehicle. The search produced a stolen 9mm handgun as well as narcotic paraphernalia.

One week later in collaboration with the Metro Gang Unit a search warrant was served on the arrestee's apartment. Distributable amounts of marijuana were seized, and a wanted juvenile was arrested.

Due to Detective Werner's proactive policing and thorough investigation, a stolen firearm was taken off the street and two arrests were made, one of which will lead to federal firearms charges.

Thank you, Detective Werner, for being an exceptional officer in our community.

POLICY MAKER FORUM

REPRESENTATIVE SAHARA HAYES

The 2024 legislative session concluded three months ago, and bills have been signed and are going into effect. Because the Utah legislature only meets for 45 days, much of the body's work is done outside of the session. Starting in May, legislators can open bill files and begin the process of developing legislation for next year. In addition, the legislature meets for monthly interim sessions beginning in May.

Interim is where much of the heavy lifting of the legislature gets done. Legislators submit topics for study that require more consideration than they might get during the 45-day session. Committees also hear reports from departments and audit results. While bills cannot be passed during interim session (unless a special session is called), having a bill heard in an interim committee can count as the bill's committee hearing, meaning that it can be heard by the House or Senate on the first day of the legislative session.

Why does this matter to the public? Senators and representatives across the state are already working on bills that will be heard in 2025. If there are issues that you are dealing with that you feel could be resolved through legislation now is the time to contact your legislators. If you hold off until December, there likely will not be time for the ground work that your idea needs. You can follow along with interim sessions or find your legislator's contact information on the Utah State Legislature page, le.utah.gov.

East Mill Creek Lions Club is the Best!

The East Mill Creek Lions Club is a member of the Lions Club International Foundation whose mission is to support the efforts of Lions clubs and partners in serving communities locally and globally, giving hope and impacting lives through humanitarian service projects and grants. We, the members—all volunteers—have worked hard to make our community a better place.

Our Club was chartered by the International Association of Lions Clubs on December 2, 1943. The Inaugural Charter Night was celebrated on January 15, 1944. The club was formed when members of the East Mill Creek Betterment Society voted to affiliate with the International Association of Lions Clubs.

- The main events we host and sponsor are:
- The Fourth of July Community Celebration (the breakfast and parade)
 - Share The Harvest (donations of turkey and meal items for Thanksgiving to those in need)
 - The annual Easter Egg Hunt where we also gather donated eyeglasses (Lions are known throughout the world for their work to improve the lives of the visually impaired and prevent avoidable blindness).

Our Lions also sponsors Troop 5 (the oldest troop in the State) for Scouting America, which includes 3 troops, one for the girls, one for the boys and one for Cub Scout Pack. Troop 5 will be the color guard in this year's parade.

On behalf of our members, I want to thank everyone for their generosity in supporting our activities. The 4th of July Celebration has been going on for over 80 years. Thanks to all our volunteers who work alongside us in putting the event together—including the setup/take down of the park items, all those folks participating in the parade—we know the time and energy that goes into putting the entries together—the floats, decorating bicycles, and bodies, And thanks to the bands that march and our elected officials, the Unified Fire Authority (UFA), Salt

FIREWORK RESTRICTIONS

The City Council has adopted the firework restrictions map developed in coordination with the Fire Marshal. The restricted areas will be the same as last year with the addition of two city parks—fireworks are restricted in all areas of Millcreek east of 900 East and west of 700 West as well as in Scott Avenue and Sunnyvale Parks.

Our wet winter has contributed to the growth of weeds and underbrush, all of which are prime fuel sources for wildfires. We hear that this year we can expect an early and busy fire season and that many of the recent fires that have broken out throughout the state are human caused. It is important that the irresponsible use of fireworks does not have catastrophic consequences.

We understand that fireworks are a fun family tradition for many families, however they are divisive, and many residents (including veterans) and their pets are caused extreme distress by the loud noises. Fireworks are also terrible for our air quality. This presents the city council with a difficult dilemma and the restriction determination was made based on the professional assessment of risk by the fire marshal.

On July 3rd, Millcreek will be providing a drone show on Millcreek Common as an alternative to fireworks. We hope Millcreek residents will join us for that show and for the East Mill Creek Lions Club 4th of July parade.

Residents can view the Fireworks Restrictions Interactive Map on the Unified Fire Authority website: unifiedfire.org/prevention/fireworks/.

the city had to remove the playground equipment at Fortuna Park due to unexpected safety hazards. The City Council is working on finding grants and other opportunities to help replace this equipment.

Scott Avenue Park, or Ben Franklin Park as some long-time residents call it, is located just west of 900 East on Scott Avenue. This park serves as a water retention basin, allowing for the collection of water in high-water seasons to help prevent flooding. The parking lot at Scott Avenue Park is in need of repair and replacement. The City Council is working to identify funds to help with this project.

Sunnyvale Park, the city's westernmost park, is located at 700 West. Recent improvements to this park include neighborhood garden boxes, futsal courts, and new playground equipment. This park is the site of a weekly farmers market each Saturday in the summer featuring produce and items geared toward the refugee population that live in that area of Millcreek and South Salt Lake.

In addition to the four city-owned parks, Millcreek has two Salt Lake County parks within its boundaries: Evergreen Park and Big Cottonwood Park. Additionally, Salt Lake City's Tanner Park and Parley's Nature Park are on the northern boundary of Millcreek between Heritage Way and I-80.

Big Cottonwood Park is the largest park within Millcreek's boundaries. It spans 4500 South and includes a large softball complex, and a nature preserve. Salt Lake County removed the playground two years ago due to safety concerns. The county has done a study and solicited public comments to help create a master plan for the entire Big Cottonwood Park area and to guide park improvements. While the city is not involved in the planning for this park, we continue to be in communication with Salt Lake County Parks to move this project along and help provide information to Millcreek residents.

As I stated at the beginning of this article, the care and maintenance of all the parks within Millcreek's boundaries are the responsibility of all park users and not solely the responsibility of the city or county. City and county ordinances govern the use of these amenities, but policing behavior at all of the parks all of the time is not reasonable. Therefore, it is important that everyone who uses the park abides by the ordinances and follows the rules. This ensures that everyone in the park has an enjoyable and safe experience.

One of the most common park complaints we hear is that people are recreating with their dogs off-leash and that they don't clean up their dog's waste. Dogs are required to be on leash at all Millcreek parks. This is for the safety of all park patrons. We sometimes hear from some dog owners that they let their dogs off-leash in the park because their dogs are well-trained. While this might be true, one person disregarding the leash ordinance motivates others to do so. Additionally, while a dog may be well-trained at home, it might not behave as expected when startled or when a child or other dog approaches. The on-leash ordinance is enforced by Salt Lake County Animal Control, and violators face fines or impoundment of their dogs (in severe cases). All dogs are required to be licensed.

Cleaning up after your dog's waste shouldn't need much explanation. It is just common courtesy and good manners to do so. No one likes to get dog poop on their shoes, and no one likes to gather up the poop bags that have been filled and left behind. Please be responsible for this part of your dog's care and clean up and remove your dog's waste. This has become a problem, not only in our parks, but also at school grounds. Granite District has closed some school properties after school hours because dog waste has become so problematic. Let's change this behavior so that open space can remain clean and available for all users.

Another issue we have faced in the past is unauthorized camping in the parks. Camping is not allowed in any city or county park, and overnight camping is not allowed in the parking lots. If you observe this or other unlawful behavior at a park, please call the UPD non-emergency line at 801-840-4000. If you observe a felony or crime in progress, please call 911 to report it.

Our parks are among Millcreek's most valuable assets, and the city invests significantly in their maintenance and improvement. We urge everyone to help protect these wonderful community spaces by using the parks responsibly. Together, we can ensure they remain enjoyable for all.
