Gmail - Millcreek Neighborhood Meeting.pdfb.  Millcreek Neighborhood Meeting.pdf4. Crosswalk Concerns on 900 East-- Helen Sullivan. Ms. Sullivan and her daughter, who related an experience dealing with a close call involving a vehicle in 2024 and Jeff Dickson, who attended with members of his family to discuss a traffic accident near their home had recommendations to suggest to the MCC. Mr. Dickson said that about three years ago while walking with his family near their home at 3430 S. 900 East they entered a

	crosswalk to go across 900 East. Shortly after, a large Jeep came toward the cross walk and it was apparent that the Jeep did not see his family. Dickson decided to get through the crosswalk as quickly as possible hoping to avoid the Jeep. They were not able to and the Jeep, after making an effort to stop, pushed the family over causing them to fall into the street and tip over their baby stroller. One of the children suffered a fractured ankle as a result. That child related his account of the incident and was emotionally moved retelling it. The neighborhood has had two more close calls with vehicles and pedestrians in 2024. Ms. Sullivan’s daughter narrowly avoided being hit by a truck which had to slam on its brakes to avoid her. Dickson stated that vehicle pedestrian accidents where the vehicle travels 30 mph or slower result in 25% pedestrian deaths vs 50% deaths when the vehicle travels at 39 mph. - Foundation for Traffic Safety. He recommended that the speed limit in the area where the accidents and close calls have occurred should be lowered from 40 to 25 miles per hour. It was also noted during the meeting as a comparison that the speed limit on 1100 East from 3300 South to 4500 South is 30 miles per hour. Dickson also asked that the vehicle crosswalk close to his house be moved to Scott Avenue just 200 feet south of the current crosswalk and a flashing light be placed at the crosswalk. A crosswalk at Scott Avenue would be closer to a bus stop, and Scott Avenue park. Mr. Desirant said that he received an email earlier in the year from Ms. Sullivan regarding the traffic issues. As a result of the email the city has opened a warrant to study the traffic in that area. The MCC passed a motion that it would write a letter to the City Council on behalf of Ms. Sullivan and Mr. Dickson, and that the letter would reference the warrant and request that the letter be attached to it.
