New Millcreek Business Council Board Launch

Millcreek's Business Council has new leadership with a Board of Directors now governing the organization. Unlike a chamber of commerce, all licensed Millcreek businesses are automatic members. Previously run by committees, the council is now led by a diverse board representing various industries and business sizes.

Michael Gura (Mansell Real Estate) was elected chair, with Steven Connors (Maid Brigade) as vice chair. Other board members include Mary Woodard, Matt Hasbrouck, T.J. Kropf, Gavin Pierce, Laura Clark, Cynthia Stringham, Vicki Bolt, and Ismar Vallecillos. Mayor Jeff Silvestrini represents the City Council, and Jen Holmberg is the resident representative. City staff support includes Mike Winder, Elise Summers, Collyn Mosquito, and Lacy Gill.

The Business Council hosts networking events like Meet-N-Eat, business markets, and an annual awards gala. It also recognizes businesses through awards and ribbon cuttings and organizes service projects such as the winter coat drive. "We are excited for this high-caliber group to lead our events and programs," said Elise Summers.
