reception at 6:30 PM with light refreshments, followed at 7 PM by the presentations and the Mayor's address.

Mayor Silvestrini's annual address will highlight the City's accomplishments, challenges, and goals for the future. The prestigious Community Champion Awards, also presented annually by members of the City Council and the Mayor, recognize individuals and groups who have made exceptional contributions to the Millcreek community.

The recipients of the 2025 Community Champion Awards are:

- Jed Jensen (Posthumously) – A beloved member of the Millcreek community, Jed's legacy of service, kindness, and dedication will be honored posthumously. His work in bettering the lives of others leaves a lasting impact that continues to resonate throughout Millcreek.
- Kathy Clark – An outstanding community leader, Kathy has spent years helping Millcreek grow and thrive through her volunteerism, advocacy, and tireless efforts to make a difference in the lives of residents.
- Dan Lofgren – A passionate advocate for local businesses and community engagement, Dan's work in fostering a stronger, more connected Millcreek has been truly remarkable.
- Rabbi Samuel Spector – With a deep commitment to interfaith dialogue and fostering inclusivity, Rabbi Spector has been a steady and compassionate presence, bringing people together across different backgrounds and beliefs.
- Garth & JayLynn Wakefield – Known for their philanthropic efforts and community outreach, the Wakefields have worked tirelessly to improve the lives of their neighbors and make Millcreek a better place for all who call it home.

Everyone is invited to attend this free event. The evening promises to be a celebration of the spirit of Millcreek and our City's collective progress.

Let's come together to honor those who make Millcreek a truly exceptional place to live! We are all "Connected by Nature"!

Public Comment Policy and Procedure: The purpose of public comment is to allow citizens to address items on the agenda. Citizens requesting to address the Council may be asked to complete a written comment form and present it to the City Recorder. In general, the Chair will allow an individual two minutes to address the Council. A spokesperson, recognized as representing a group in attendance, may be allowed up to five minutes. At the conclusion of the citizen comment time, the Chair may direct staff to assist the citizen on the issue presented; direct the citizen to the proper administrative department(s); or take no action. This policy also applies to all public hearings. Citizens may also submit written requests (outlining their issue) for an item to be considered at a future council meeting. The Chair may place the item on the agenda under citizen comments; direct staff to assist the citizen; direct the citizen to the proper administrative departments; or take no action. Public comment can be submitted via the City's website at: <https://www.millcreekut.gov/FormCenter/Contact-Us-5/Public-Comments-61>.

The meetings will be live streamed via the City's website at: <https://www.millcreekut.gov/373/Meeting-Live-Stream>. The Council may convene in an electronic meeting. Council members may participate from remote locations and may be connected to the electronic meeting by GoToMeeting, Zoom, or telephonic communications. The anchor location will be City Hall.
