Keep Fire Hydrants Clear

MILLCREEK. Mike Watson, UFA Assistant Chief urges everyone to help keep fire hydrants clear during these snowy winter months. Maintaining a clear and workable space around fire hydrants during the winter months is vital. In general, this responsibility falls on the residents who own or occupy property nearest a hydrant. When responding to structure fires, time is of the essence. Fire departments strive for acceptable response times and it is frustrating when a fire hydrant needs to be cleared of snow or debris before firefighters can engage in water supply and suppression tactics to extinguish a fire. If you have a hydrant on or near your property, here are the things you can do to ensure firefighters can connect to the hydrant when needed:

- Shovel or snow blow 3 feet of space on each side and in the back of fire hydrants.
- Maintain an open corridor from the street to the front of fire hydrants.
- These clearings should go all the way to the ground whenever possible, but not less than one foot below the hydrant caps at a minimum.

Some neighborhoods organize an Adopt-A-Hydrant program. This creates the awareness for residents to take note of clearing snow from hydrants and maintaining space around them and to help each other with those tasks throughout the winter months. These things can be done when you are already out shoveling or snow blowing your driveways and sidewalks.

Proposed Changes to the Current Sign Ordinance

Our sincere apologies, but in last week's newsletter there was an incorrect link to this survey. It has been fixed now, so if you have a little time, we'd love your feedback!

MILLCREEK. The current sign ordinance for Millcreek was inherited from Salt Lake County and has not been updated for 15-20 years. It is the generic ordinance that covered all the unincorporated areas of the County. The Millcreek General Plan (our community vision process) emphasized the importance of improving the visual quality and creating opportunities for economic development along our corridors and in our centers. More economic activity results in new signs and changes to existing signs. Millcreek would like to have a sign ordinance that is better suited for our unique community needs. In addition to advertising, signs can also impact the safety of streets and the appearance of public spaces. This is why your city is reaching out for feedback to help create a sign ordinance that represents our community values. Please take five minutes to complete the survey: click here. Give your input on this important ordinance change and ask others to do so as well!

2019 HOMELESSNESS COUNT

In the early mornings of Jan. 24, 25 and 26, volunteers will be conducting in-depth surveys with people sleeping outside, in cars and in abandoned buildings. These surveys are done annually to help governments and service providers to better support people experiencing homelessness.

MILLCREEK. In partnership with Utah Department of Workforce Services, we can help make a difference in the lives of those experiencing homelessness on the streets. DWS needs help finding these individuals and letting them know we care and that help is available!

How many people are currently homeless in Salt Lake County? How many of them are families, youth, or veterans?

You can help us answer these questions and more by volunteering for the 2019 Homeless Point in Time Count.

The Point in Time Count is an annual count of homeless persons that takes place over the course of four sequential days from Wednesday, January 23 through Saturday, January 26.

Why we count:

- Find homeless persons living on the streets and gather information in order to connect them with available services.
- Help policymakers and program administrators set benchmarks to measure progress toward the goal of ending homelessness.
- Help plan services and programs to appropriately address local needs, identify strengths and gaps in a community's current homelessness assistance system.
- Inform public opinion, increase public awareness, and attract resources.
- Create the most reliable estimate of people experiencing homelessness throughout Utah.

Get Involved!

There are several ways you can volunteer and be a part of the Salt Lake County Homeless Point in Time Count. The more volunteers we have for this four-day event, the more successful the count can be!

The Millcreek Arts Council needs YOU!

There are many great art events planned for 2019 that will require the help of many volunteers.

If you like art, or just want to help our community, please sign up to be a volunteer.

You can sign up at our table at Millcreek's "Two Infinity and Beyond" birthday party next Thursday, Jan. 24th, or call Kevin Flynn at 801-706-3344 or email: kevinflynn@mail.com.

Here are some of the art events we will be sponsoring this year:

Millcreek Summer Jam Concert Series in Canyon Rim Park

Art Night at the Venture Out festival June 28

Monthly Art Exhibit at the Millcreek Community Library

Utility Box Wraps of Artwork around the city

Art Events at Sunnyvale Park
